When Bill and Laura were here, I often loaned them my camera to “have fun” with. Their interest led me to “play” with it too. Rather than write a lengthy entry here, I will use this page to invite you to check out some of the pictures we took located in the “Pictures” section of our website.

Writing a brief description for each photo is quite time consuming hence, I have a tendency to not put on as many pics as I should. Today I am making up for my laziness by uploading 24 pics... so please enjoy!

This particular photo was one I took of the biggest of their bison at the Greater Vancouver Zoo last Wednesday.
